Safeco Insurance and Millennium Corporate Solutions support The Susan G. Komen Foundation

Irvine, Calif. (February 1, 2012) — Millennium Corporate Solutions announced today that Safeco Insurance has donated $3,025 to the Susan G. Komen Foundation.

Safeco's contribution will be presented to the Susan G. Komen Foundation on Thursday, Feb. 2 by Stephen J. Saporito of Millennium Corporate Solutions.

Saporito nominated the Susan G. Komen Foundation through the Safeco® "Do Something Special" campaign, a friendly competition among local area agents where top performers get to select a charity organization to receive a grant from Safeco on their behalf.

The grant from Safeco was made possible in part through the Safeco Insurance® Agent Giving Program, which supports and honors the civic engagement of Safeco agents and celebrates nonprofit organizations that make a difference in their communities.

"The Susan G. Komen Foundation is recognized as a leader in supporting a cure and raising awareness of breast cancer," said Saporito. "Safeco's donation to the Susan G. Komen Foundation is a wonderful way to support our community."

"Safeco is proud to support the Susan G. Komen Foundation and help their efforts to save lives, empower people, ensure quality care for all and energize science to find the cure for breast cancer," said Kimberly Kunody, Safeco's regional marketing director for California.
